

About the Creator

Self-taught jewelry designer, Kamilah Campbell is a creative visionary. Turning her hobby into lucrative business, Campbell has participated in various trade and craft shows. She has designed one of kind pieces for Clients' special occasions.

"I'm always looking to re-create new from the old to make modern pieces – it adds uniqueness." Statement pieces with a personal twist, each jewelry piece is sketched and then hand crafted. The Pink Locket has full line of rings, necklaces, bracelets and earrings that will make the perfect for any occasion.

Redefining Pink!

About The Pink Locket

Created on the foundation "bringing out the inner PINK of every woman," all the jewelry designs by The Pink Locket are hand crafted with a creative flair. Original pieces are created with glass beads, semi-precious stones, vintage pieces, fabric, recycled jewelry pieces and metal wire.

The Pink Locket designs and distributes pieces with a mission to provide women with accessories that fit their personality while adding a touch of inner PINK to each piece.

The company started off by hosting a series of jewelry soirees, which it continues to do today. After popular demand, The Pink Locket launched its online site in March 2008 and began selling its unique designs online and has blossomed into a community of PINKtastic customers.

Host a PINK Soiree

True to its beginnings, The Pink Locket clients may host their own PINK Soiree and receive 10% of the sales. Shop PINK and save money!
